Location

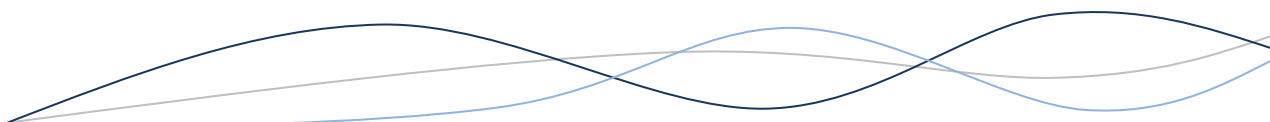

Queen Street is ideally located a few minutes walk from Mansion House, Cannon Street and Bank tube and train stations. These stations collectively service the District, Circle, Central, Northern and Waterloo & City tube lines and also the Docklands Light Rail. Guests can access main line trains from Cannon Street station which services South and South-East London. It is also a short walk to Blackfriars main line station offering access to North London.

Directions by Tube

Take the District or Circle line to Mansion House. Exit the barriers and take the stairs to the left. Turn right at the top of the stairs and walk along Cannon Street. Take the next right onto Queen Street and No 30 is located further down on the right.

Directions by Car

No 30 is located at the south end of Queen Street, adjacent to a pedestrianised area. Vehicular access can be achieved to 30 Queen Street by turning onto College Hill from Cannon Street, turning right onto Cloak Lane and then left onto Queen Street.

Local Information

The City is an area where almost 350,000 people work every day, and approximately 5,000 people live, so our guests can enjoy the energy of the City during the day, and its peace, tranquillity and splendour at night. The Bank of England and St Paul's Cathedral are only minutes away, as are the famous statue of the 'Iron Duke' Wellington and the official residence of the Lord Mayor at Mansion House.

Take time out to enjoy the luxury shopping on offer at the Royal Exchange along with some of London's finest restaurants and cafes. For theatre lovers, the lively West End with its theatres, shopping and nightlife is a short distance away.

Local Highlights

St Pauls Cathedral:

One of London's most visited tourist sites.

This historic landmark is located with a 10 minute walk.

The Royal Exchange:

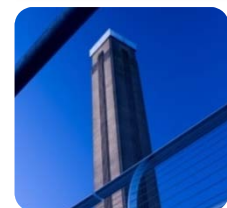

Located within a 5 minute walk, London's former centre of commerce is now a luxury Shopping Centre.

The Tate Modern Gallery:

Britain's national museum of international modern art.

Located just a short walk over the Millennium Bridge – Approx. 10mins.
